Policies for Reporting Crimes and Emergencies

Charles & Sue's School of Hair Design prepares this report to comply with the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy, the Violence Against Women Act and Crime Statistics Act. Students, parents and staff may access this report in full at any time by going to www.charlesandsues.com. A complete copy of this report is also available in the Charles & Sue's Office of Financial Aid and the administrative area. This report is prepared in cooperation with the Bryan Police Department. Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics include those reported to the Bryan Police Department, and Charles & Sue's designated campus officials.

Title IX Coordinator

All educational institutions receiving Federal financial assistance must designate at least one employee to coordinate their efforts to comply with and carry out their responsibilities under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits sex discrimination in education programs and activities. These designated employees are generally referred to as Title IX coordinators. A school's Title IX coordinator or coordinators are expected to play a critical role in helping a school ensure that every person affected by its operations—including faculty, staff, and students—are aware of their legal rights under Title IX, and that the school and all of its employees, through its policies, procedures, and practices, complies with its legal obligations under Title IX.

A student should contact the Title IX Coordinator in order to:

- seek information or training about students' rights and courses of action available to resolve reports or complaints that involve potential sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct,
- file a complaint or make a report of sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct,
- notify the college of an incident or policy or procedure that may raise potential Title IX concerns
- get information about available resources (including confidential resources) and support services relating to sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct, and
- ask questions about the college's policies and procedures related to sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct.

Those Designated campus officials are:

Tracy Gilstrap, Title IX Coordinator
979-776-4375

Tracy Gilstrap, Director 979-776-4375

Sheri Collins, Financial Aid Administrator
979-776-4375

Brandi Kuecker, Lead Educator 979-776-4375

Each year, the Director of Charles & Sue's will compile a crime statistics report from the incident and crime reports given to the campus security authorities (Sheri Collins, Financial Aid Administrator and Brandi Kuecker, Lead Educator). Charles & Sue's will annually submit the security report each year after the letter and certificate requesting is sent to the Director of Charles & Sue's. The crime statistics will be sent to the Department of Education each year upon the receipt of a letter requesting the crime reports. This information will be uploaded to <http://surveys.ope.ed.gov/security>. Crime statistics from the area surrounding Charles & Sue's will also be requested from the Bryan Police Department and will be disclosed in the annual crime report.

Each year, an announcement will be made at Charles & Sue's to all enrolled students, they will be given the web site address to access this updated report, as well at each new student orientation. The typed up notice will also be handed out to all enrolled students, which will include the URL to access the Annual Security Report as well as an overview of what is included in the report.

Educators and the administrative staff will be notified via a staff meeting. Copies of this report may also be obtained at the financial aid office or by calling 979-776-4375. At Charles & Sue's, we strive to work together to provide a safe environment that will prepare our students for an incredible career.

To report a crime:

Contact the campus security authorities immediately in the event of a crime. Any Suspicious Activity or person seen in the parking lot or loitering around vehicles or inside the building should be reported to the police department. In addition, you may report a crime to any of the designated campus officials. If not available by phone, Tracy Gilstrap, (Director) then e-mail, charlesandsues@gmail.com (only in non-emergent cases). The campus security authorities do not have arresting authority.

For emergencies, dial 9-1-1.

Every crime that is reported to the security authorities will be investigated and reported to the BPD. Please note that due to the public nature of police reports, Charles & Sue's cannot ensure the complete confidentiality of any crime report. All incident reports are reviewed by the Director.

Charles & Sue's does not have a campus police department. The Bryan Police Department has sole arresting authority on the Charles & Sue's campus and the surrounding areas. Students, educators, administrative staff, clients and community members are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents to the above designated campus security authorities. For matters of emergent nature, dial 9-1-1 immediately.

Community members, students, faculty, staff and guests are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents to the Bryan Police Department (BPD) and the designated campus officials in a timely manner. This publication contains information about on-campus and off campus resources. Information is made available to provide Charles & Sue's students, educators and staff specific information about local resources available should they become a victim of a crime. The information about local resources should be used as helpful information and does not infer that those resources are "reporting entities" for Charles & Sue's. Employees and Students can report a crime on a voluntary, confidential basis.

Timely Warning

Crimes should be reported to Charles & Sue's campus security authorities to ensure inclusion in the annual crime statistics and to aid in providing timely warning notices to the community, when appropriate. If students and staff are still in Charles & Sue's building and the Director determines that there is a significant emergency or threat, the school will, without delay and accounting for the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate continuing alarm. A campus-wide "timely warning" will be made over the intercom system with the following statement: "Charles & Sue's is now in a lockdown procedure. All staff, students and guests should report to the nearest classroom immediately." This announcement will be made by Charles & Sue's security authority (Tracy Gilstrap) via the microphone (located in the front at the reception desk). In the Director's absence, designated campus officials would notify the appropriate security authority and determine the content of the notification.

- Time and safety permitting, Guest Services will lock the front doors, and the back door.
- Instructors in the classrooms are to lock the classroom doors and close all blinds. Tables in the classrooms should be tipped on their sides to form a barricade on a corner spot of the classroom, far away from windows. Instructors should then take roll and write down the names of any students not accounted for or extra. The classes should remain quiet and still.
- Administrative staff should lock their offices if unable to evacuate, and remain as far back from windows as possible.
- The classrooms and offices will remain locked until emergency personnel arrive and announce that the area is safe to evacuate.
- After evacuation employees, students, and guests are to gather in the parking lot at Charles & Sue's near the sign. Staff and students are required to remain on the property until everyone has been accounted for, unless otherwise told by a member of senior management. After evacuation, a member of management from each department will ensure all staff is present and accounted for. Each Instructor will ensure their students are present and accounted for. We will utilize the attendance binder, guest sign-in sheets, and employee/student lists to account for everyone present in the building before anyone is excused. All safety procedures will be tested on an annual basis.

Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

Reporting a Sex Offense, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

It is the policy of Charles & Sue's to immediately report any sexual offense to the Bryan Police Department, whether committed on or off campus. It is imperative that victims of any kind of sexual offense report the crime to one of Charles & Sue's security authorities and/or to the Bryan Police Department. It is also important to preserve any and all evidence (i.e. clothing, objects and any other biological evidence) for the proof of a criminal offense.

When sexual assaults are committed off-campus, persons are encouraged to report to the appropriate law enforcement agency, but a student may elect, instead, to report the sexual assault to one of the campus security authorities. Any assault will be immediately reported to the Bryan Police Department. If an assault is reported to the campus security authorities, a grievance form will be provided to the student.

Procedures if you are a Victim of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking

1. Report to Police.
2. Tell the first person you see and point out the attacker.
3. Don't shower or bathe.
4. Preserve as much evidence as possible.
5. Remember all you can about the attacker such as age, height, weight, race, color of eyes-hair-clothes, type of complexion-pants-shirt-shoes.

Disciplinary Action for Sex Offense, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking Convictions

If a student or a staff member is convicted of a sexual offense, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking regardless of whether or not the action took place on Charles & Sue's campus, that individual is subject to disciplinary actions by the School. Any student or staff member may be subject to sanctions leading up to or including termination if convicted of any domestic violence, sex offense, including rape, acquaintance rape or any other forcible or non-forcible sex offenses.

Both the accuser and the accused will be informed of the outcome of any institutional sanctions. Additionally, both the accuser and the accused are entitled to have others present during a disciplinary proceeding. Also, Charles & Sue's is obligated to comply with a student's request for an academic situating change following an alleged sex offense.

Registered Sex Offenders

In accordance to the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 (CSCPA), which amends the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Registration Act, the Jeanne Cleary Act and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the state of Texas is required to provide information as to the location, enrollment and/or employment of a sex offender at a post-secondary institution to local law enforcement authorities.

Charles & Sue's is required to inform both staff and students of recourses where this information can be found. The law also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice to each higher education institution in that State at which the person is employed, carries a vocation, or is a student. Pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedures Article 62.005, the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) establishes this website as the official internet public access to the DPS sex offender registration computerized central database. Use the following URL to access the Texas DPS website: <https://records.txdps.state.tx.us/SexOffender/>.

Charles & Sue's School of Hair Design campus address is, 1711 Briarcrest Drive, Bryan, TX.

Charles & Sue's does not condone violence or hate crimes of any kind. Further, Charles & Sue's endeavors to safeguard the rights of American citizens that are mandated by the Constitution of the United States, regardless of ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, sexual identity, disability and political or religious beliefs.

During the academic year, Charles & Sue's provides educational programs conducted by professionals in the Bryan/College Station area, to promote the awareness of sexual assault (rape and acquaintance rape) and domestic violence, as well as education sessions on personal safety. A common theme of all awareness and crime prevention programs is to encourage students and employees to be aware of their responsibility for their own security and the security of other.

SECURITY TIPS PERSONAL SAFETY: PROTECT YOURSELF

Prevention is the best protection against crime.

- Don't dismiss suspicious people or situations.
- Don't put yourself in harm's way; avoid dangerous situations.
- Lock your car doors.
- Use common sense.
- Don't walk alone at night; stay in lighted areas.
- Park your vehicle in lighted areas; lock the doors.
- Keep valuables out of sight; don't tempt a thief.
- Don't give out your keys; they can be copied.
- Report all crimes and suspicious acts.

THINGS TO DO TO REDUCE THE RISK

- Lock doors.
- Avoid out-of-the-way places.
- Vary your routine.
- Learn about friends' attitudes before becoming friendly.
- Watch alcohol intake.
- Leave lights on in rooms.
- Have transportation or use public transportation.

AUTO THEFT PREVENTION: SECURING YOUR VEHICLE

- Always lock your car, even if you're leaving it for a short time.
- Remove the key, and do not keep a spare key hidden somewhere on the frame or body of the vehicle in a magnetic box.
- All windows should be rolled up completely. One slightly open window can render all other precautions useless.

- Park in well-lit areas. When possible park in an attended parking lot or garage. At home, park your vehicle in the garage.

 - Don't leave valuables visible in your car. Radios, cameras, packages, etc. attract attention and can tempt thieves to break in. Lock all valuables in the trunk.
 - Never leave credit cards, checkbooks, or papers pertaining to the vehicle in the glove box. It could aid the thief in selling your car.
 - Do not attach a name tag or plate to your key ring. It could lead a thief directly to your house or car if you lose your keys Crime Statistics Crime statistics include all reports received by the Bryan Police Department and from the persons designated as Campus Security Authorities for Charles & Sue's.

If no progress is shown during the probation period, the student may be dismissed.

 - b. Possession of weapons, firearms and knives while on School property or when involved in any School sponsored activity.
 - c. Possessing, distributing or using alcohol and/or illegal drugs in or around the School.
 - d. Vandalizing, stealing or being in possession of stolen property.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE

If a final determination is made that any student of Charles & Sue's School is found to be abusing alcohol or using, possessing, manufacturing or distributing controlled substances in violation of the law on School property or at School events, they shall be subject to, at a minimum, the referral to counseling and automatic and immediate suspension or dismissal from School. Charles & Sue's School imposed sanctions are additional to any legal actions taken by local, state or federal authorities.

Charles & Sue's School is committed to complying with all laws that prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in admission to, employment with, and otherwise in the operation of its educational program and activities. Among the applicable laws, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination and sexual harassment in schools. In compliance with Title IX, Charles & Sue's School is committed to ensuring that all its students have equal opportunity to benefit from our program and activities, and that all its employees enjoy equal employment opportunity, free from sex discrimination and sexual harassment. The protections of Title IX also extend to third parties. Charles & Sue's School has developed this Title IX policy and the associated processes to ensure that all complaints of sex discrimination and sexual harassment—whether brought by students, employees, or third parties—are promptly investigated and, where a violation is found, that Charles & Sue's School takes action to end the conduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects.

Sexual harassment is unwelcomed advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when submission to or rejection of this conduct explicitly or implicitly affects a person's employment or education, unreasonably interfered with a person's work or educational performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment.

Individuals who believe they are victims of sexual harassment should make it clear that such behavior is offensive to them. If the behavior continues, document the matter and refer it to Campus Security Authorities.

Students who are found to be participating in any form of sexual harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to suspension or dismissal from school.

Any student, employee or other person who believes that he or she has been subjected to any form of sex discrimination, sexual harassment, or sexual assault in violation of this policy should make a complaint. Charles & Sue's School takes all such complaints seriously.

Charles & Sue's School strongly encourages any person who wishes to make a complaint under this policy to bring that complaint directly to the School's Title IX Coordinator. However, a student may also bring such a complaint to an Admission Representative, Educator, School Director, or staff member with whom he or she is comfortable. Likewise, an employee may bring such a complaint to their immediate supervisor, another manager, or a human resources generalist. In each case, the complainant should understand that the complaint will be forwarded to the Title IX Coordinator.

If you believe you have been sexually assaulted, your first priority should be to get to a place of safety. Charles & Sue's School strongly advocates that a victim of sexual assault report the incident in a timely manner.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation for the proof of a criminal offense. An assault should be reported directly to local police and/or Campus Security Authorities. Upon request, Campus Security Authorities will assist victims in reporting incidents of sexual assault to local police. Filing a police report will not obligate the victim to prosecute, nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from officers. Charles & Sue's School seeks to handle each complaint and investigation with professionalism and discretion. A fair and effective investigation often requires that the details of the complaint and/or the identity of the complainant be shared with those individuals involved in and/or interviewed in the investigation. Such individuals will, however, be expected to maintain the confidentiality of the matter to the extent possible.

You can obtain information about rape awareness and prevention, victim support, counseling and mental health from the Rape, Abuse, and Incest National Network, at 1-800-656- HOPE (4673) or their website: <http://www.rainn.org>. Charles & Sue's School does not offer on-campus counseling services.

In the event a student has been apprehended for the violation of a law in the community, state or nation, the School will not request nor agree to special consideration for that individual because of his or her status as a student. The School will cooperate fully with law enforcement and other agencies in the enforcement of the law.
